Rebecca:

Thank you. That is what I was thinking, but the original letter was making reference only to 2019. So I think I am now clear on the request. I appreciate it.

David,

I'm sorry that this is not easier by email. Let me try explaining differently. Duke would like the tariffs to be effective on December 1, 2019, so that low-income customers are protected for this season's winter months (we typically think of the winter months as December 2019 through March 2020.) Does that help?

Thanks,

Rebecca
